Call to Worship

Leader Come let us worship. We have come to praise our God.

Congregation We praise God for clearly showing Himself to us. We seek to be witnesses to the things we have seen and heard.

Leader We rejoice to see Jesus' come and we give God praise for showing His glory.

* Opening Songs "Here I Am to Worship"
"Lord Most High"

Song "Open the Eyes of My Heart"

Offering Cadets

Litany (Connor Jonker and Jacob VanderEnde)
Leader We need to read and to study God's Word to be able to understand our world, to see clearly with 20/20 vision.

Congregation We claim the truth, "Happy are the pure in heart for they shall see God."

Leader Teachers, counsellors and those who lead are warned not to be blind guides. "For can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit?"

Congregation We all need to practice what we preach — to be sure that our lives match our words.

Leader We challenge you to train yourselves in godliness, for godliness has value for all things.

Congregation As our neighbours watch us and get to know us they need to be able to see that we have been with Jesus.

Leader Jesus said, "Blessed are your eyes because they see."

Congregation We confess that often in this world we see "a poor reflection as in a mirror." But we rejoice in knowing that someday we will see clearly all the time.

Leader Even as we strive to see clearly with 20/20 vision, let Jesus be seen in us!

Congregation Yes, we want to see Jesus! And we also want Jesus to be seen in us.

Song "Be Thou My Vision"

Scripture Sermon Luke 6: 37-42 (Yehu Moon)

As of this week, donations to the Christian Reformed World Relief Committee for the Haiti disaster response had already topped $2.1 million, and the money is continuing to come in, through church offerings and individual gifts, including almost $700,000 that has been donated online via the "Help Haiti" and CRWRC web sites."* "Thank you for the generous way in which Christian Reformed churches and members are responding to the urgent needs of the people of Haiti. Thank you for caring and thank you for sharing."
