Our Offerings

Today's Offering: Union Gospel Mission

Union Gospel Mission offers hope to the hungry, hurting and homeless. It began in 1940 as a small soup kitchen, and grew to meet the needs in our local community. They serve meals, offer effective programs and support many of the less fortunate.

Next Week's Offering: Campus Ministries

Campus ministries challenge social and intellectual centers of power with a prophetic call to be merciful, just, and generous in their institutional habits and hopes. The campus churches of many denominations and traditions is called together to herald the coming of God's reign. Celebrating our unity in Christ is a vital part of the ministry.

Our Church Family

Summer Greetings to our brothers and sisters who are not able to join us when we gather for Sunday services. Greetings to Gerda, Jim & Wilhelmina, Johanna, Ida, Sharon, Frank and Jessie. We pray that your days are pleasurable and that you are enjoying the long days of light sunshine.

Congratulations to Maria (Mon), Sjoukje (Thu) and Ineke (Fri) who will each celebrate a birthday this week.

*"We wait in hope for the Lord; he is our help and our shield.
In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name." Psalm 33:20-21*

Take Four, by K. Kingsbury Chase Ryan returns to his family and a job in his hometown, and filmmakers Ellison and Matthews finally ink a deal to have the nation's top young actor star in their current film. At the same time, the actor takes a very public fall that threatens his reputation among his fan base. The new producers find they must truly act as missionaries in order to help save the film, their families, and the young movie star. Events occur that the public will never know about, as the possibility of saving the world through film is finally a very real possibility. (F KIN)
